1. Program Introduction

Because of the rising population of Chinese learners and a shortage of highly qualified Chinese language teachers, Beijing Language and Culture University (BLCU), a comprehensive university with over 10 years' experience in online Chinese language teaching, is proud to present the innovative International Chinese Teacher Training Program - ICTP to meet the needs of Chinese teachers and those who are interested in making a career in teaching Chinese all over the world. The first global Online International Teacher Training Program is designed by BLCU's leading experts, and utilizes international quality standards to meet the demand of Chinese teaching overseas. Its mission is to deliver both quality courses and academic services enabling current or prospective teachers the flexibility and to efficiently learn, absorb and ultimately apply the methodology of Chinese language teaching.

2. Eligible Candidate

Chinese Native speakers and qualified non-native Chinese who are willing to teach Chinese as a foreign language or are willing to further enhance the teaching skills.

3. Training Methodology

The program is a 100% online curriculum. All courses are delivered through cloud-based Canvas learning management system that enables learners all over the world to have the access to course materials anywhere and anytime. Course contents are listed as modules. Successfully paid and enrolled applicants will receive log-in credentials from school and can start the course at their desired dates. There will be professional staff providing academic and technical assistance as necessary through Wechat or email communication.

4. Course Content

ICTP program consists of 10 courses taught by renowned professors from BLCU who are specializing in the fields of teaching Chinese as a second language. 5. Program Packages:

ICTP Package A : Language Elements Courses are designed to train new teachers or any non-professional Chinese teachers to improve and then master the basic Chinese language teaching methods and techniques.

ICTP Package B : Comprehensive Skills Courses are designed for teachers who have years of experiences, yet hope to improve their teaching skills to a higher level. Each package emphasizes particularly on different contents and skills. Candidates can apply for either or both packages that best fit their needs. If both packages are selected, students will be awarded two certificates for each package upon the completions.

6. Package Duration

Each course takes 4 weeks to complete, and the final exam falls on the end of the 4th week. Candidates need to take the course continuously until they complete the learning of an entire package. Each package takes about 20 weeks to complete.

ICTP program belongs to the short-term training program, valid for three years after activation. To ensure the training effect, students should accomplish the courses within the period of validity. In exceptional circumstances, students could apply for free extension before the ending date. Otherwise, they should repay at least one course tuition fees to re-active the account if they fail to complete the courses within validity period. The package duration could be extended to 1-2 years depends on the amount of incomplete courses.

7. Tuition Fee

Tuition fee for each package is $1,300 (RMB ¥ 8400). Installment payments are available upon request for each package.

There is a discount ($260 off) applied to total tuition amount if the student pay one package at once, and $520 off if the student pay two packages at once.

Eligible applicant may be subject to additional scholarship grant on need and merit basis. To be considered for the scholarship grant or deduction, applicants are required to submit a formal personal statement via online application. The deduction won't be guaranteed. School also encourages applicants to seek alternative financial aid.

8. Tuition Payment

BLCU provides receipt of the tuition fee for applicants. Default invoice description is "Program Tuition" and it can be customized upon student's request.

17. Start Date

Program courses are open for enrollment periodically. Students can inquire about start date via <https://teacher.eblcu.com> In addition, there are reminder settings on the student portal and on Canvas platform to remind the students of the start dates.

Each course takes 4 weeks to complete, and the exam falls on the 4th week. Please note the due date of each week's discussion, assignment and assessment. The cut-off time is usually the following Monday at 12:00pm Beijing time. Students may not receive a grade if they miss the deadline.

18. Grading

Each course is graded independently. The final grade is comprised of participation (discussion, assignment, weekly quiz) and the final exam. Class participation accounts for 40% and final exam accounts for 60%. The lecturers will respond to students' weekly quiz and assignment as well as the final exam within 3 days after submission. Students can also check the grades and lecturers' comments under "My Grade".

A passing grade is 60% or above. Students with a failing grade can contact school to schedule a make-up exam or to re-take the course.

19. Make-up exam Policies

Make-up exam only replace the grade of final exam. The grade of participation will remain the same. Make-up exam's questions are randomly selected from Test Bank to ensure a similar format and difficulty level. Only 1 make-up exam is allowed for each course in a single program cycle.

To apply for a make-up exam, students can log-in personal profile page and submit "application for make-up exam" within 2 business days after obtaining the course grade.

Make-up exam starts at 12:01 AM the week of new course, and ends on the following Monday at 11:59 AM Beijing Time.

20. Re-take Exam Policies

Free course re-take is available if student meet one or more conditions below:

- ① does not start or complete the current course
- ② does not attend the final exam of current course
- ③ failed Make-up exam

To apply to re-take a course, students must register for the course one week prior to the beginning of the same course in the next program cycle by logging into their personal profile page and submit an "application for course re-take".

Each course will only have one FREE course re-take opportunity. If a student fails the exam during course re-take, the student can apply for an additional make-up exam. If student still fails, the student must re-register for the program and submit tuition fee as a new applicant. There is no limit on how many times the student can re-register for the program.

21. Certificate Award Policies

Students who have completed courses with a passing grade will be awarded ICTP Certificate issued by Beijing Language and Culture University.

Students need to submit the Certificate of Completion Application to gain the certificate. Within 5 days after the completion of the last course, the students can log into their personal profile page, and submit the Certificate of Completion Application. Students can also send the application to ictp14@blcu.edu.cn. There will be a verifying process after the application is received, and the certificate will only be granted if the students pass the verification. There will be about 20 days of pending time before the students receive their certificate.

Students who have completed 10 courses (2 packages) can apply for separated certificates after the completion of 5 courses in the same package. However, if the courses don't belong in the same package, the application will not be accepted.

22. Proof of study

Students must have completed at least 3 out of 5 courses in one package in order to qualify for the proof of study issued by BLCU. Please visit the personal profile page and click "Proof of Study application". Students will receive a scanned copy of their proof of study within 10 days of the request submission.
